A PASSENGER by the P. and O. steamer Ceylon, writing to us from Singapore, mentions that the Ceylon is convoying the King of Siam's Yacht Maha Chakkri from Singapore to Aden. Anour nine o'clock last night, a lukong on duty on the Praya, near the Harbournaster's Office, observed four coolies each carrying a bag of rice. He called on the men to stop. The first man ran off, but he grasped the second and third, and a European constable arrested the fourth coolie. After depositing their prisoners in safe custody, the constables returned to the Prays, and observed a small fishing boat making off from the wall, with some rice on board. The master of the boat was arrested. This morning the rice was claimed by the owner of a cargo boat, from which it had been stolen. The value of the rice

THE Chinese signalman at the Peak signal station was charged to-day, at the Magistracy, with having on the 22nd and 24th April sold intoxicating liquor without having a licence. The Police have had their attention drawn to the existence of a shebeen at the Peak by the large number of sailors and soldiers, who of late, have been observed coming down the hill in an intoxicated condition. On the 22nd, two English Constables were sent up to the signal station to obtain evidence of the existence of the shebeen. They proceeded to the quarters of the Chinese signalman and were supplied with a gill bottle half-filled with whisky, for which $1 was paid. On the second occasion another constable visited the house and was supplied with lemonade, and a 'cinder' for which he paid twenty cents. The constable set the tumbler untouched down on the table and waited the arrival of Sergeant Robertson, who secured the whisky bottle. A search was then made in the house and one large buttle of whicky, one dozen of Gorman beer, and a large assortment of empty bottles were found on

HONGKONG POLO CLUB. ANNUAL DINNER.

Hongkong Club is noted for.

The Chairman, in submitting 'The Lindsay Gordon that-Queen, said it was unnecessary on such occasions to recommend this toast, but 1897 commemorates a memorable epoch which is attracting the attention and evoking the sympathics of the whole civilised Though sometimes sneered at, the China world. (Applause). well together, and pay more attention to the | Syne.'-Contributed. combination of the team than to individual play. Rules are more strictly observed, and men stick to their places in the field instead of riding about with the sole object of having a smack at the ball. In proposing the health of the losing teams, I desire to couple the toast with the name of our must hard-working Acting Secretary, Capt Burney. He worked hard to win the Cup with the R. A. team, whom we were lucky enough to defeat by a very narrow margin just on the stroke of time. Every one who played in the final must have noticed what an improvement had been made in the ground, an improvement entirely due to the trouble taken by our Secretary. Gen.

thanks for the very kind way you have drunk the health of the losers. It has been my doubtful pleasure to have been now four. times among the vanquished. I have tried to be in the winning team, but so far I have not been successful and I regret to see the Gunner team decaying out of sight. It has been my one great desire to win the Cup with an R.A. team, and I mean to be successful yet. Every new Gunner that comes here will, I hope, join the Polo Club, until we can again place a team in the arena and this time to win. I am glad to say that there are no signs of decay in the Hongkong Polo Club. At the present moment we have twenty playing, six prospective playing, and twenty non-playing members, which I think is a very good representation for this 'smal colony. Gentlemen, I trust that out of all these players we may next Tournament be able to raise four teams. If I can possibly put an R.A. team in I will, and I look to Mr Whitehead to inspire the civilian element with the example of his own praiseworthy ardour to put a Civilian team. in. If any one can do so there is no doubt he will. As a supporter of the game and found to equal him, and I therefore, gentle-Hongkong Polo Club, and let us drink it in Highland honours.

Mr Whitehead in the course of replying remarked it was unfortunate for the Clul that Mr. May had been prevented from boing present as his Irish wit and great fund of humour was ever welcome. It could not be on account of his grey locks, because he possessed few of any colour, that he found himself year after year in the honourable but in the absence of the Governor they position of their Chairman. Still locks or no locks, he fully intended to do all he possibly could to keep the ball rolling while he had the privilege of being one of them. It is impossible to overestimate the great and growing importance of outdoor sports and games in the life of the British people. They undoubtedly tend to bind man and ing as your correspondent stated) and recommunities together by common interests and common sympathies. The great devolopment and keen general interest now taken in athletics is rather a revival of what used to prevail in England than a novelty. This movement in is heartily to be welcomed, and it is gratifying to find that the ancient instincts of the British race are reasserting themselves. THIS paper is now issued every day. The subscription is fixed at Five kong, or Eleven Dollars Forty Cents including postage to Coast ports.

It is the first Chinese Acrespaper ever issued under purchy native direction. The A chief support of the Timper is of course derived from the native community, amongst whom also are to be found the guarantors and securities necessary to place it on a business and legal footing.

The projectors, basing their estimates apon the most reliable information from the various Ports in China and Japan,from Australia, California, Singapore, Penang, Saigon, and other places frequented be the Chineso, -consider themselves justified in guaranteeing a large and ever-increasing circulation. The advantages offered to advertisers are therefore unusually great, and the foreign community generally will find it to their interest to avail themselves of

The field open to a paper of this description-conducted by native efforts, but progressive and anti-obstructive in toneis almost limitless. It on the one hand commands Chinese belief and interest, while on the other it deserves every aid that can be given to it by foreigners. Like English journals it contains Editorials, with Local, Shipping, and Commercial News and Advertisements. Subscription orders for the above may be
